

You don't need that extra bedroom really-- since the Kroehler Davenport contains such a comfortable, full size bed, holds a full weight mattress; since it is so simple and easy to operate, you can change your living room into a sleeping room.

A real davenport by day, and a real bed by night. Ask to see it.

Mrs. Amelia Lane, who has been visiting her niece, Mrs. B. A. Eastman of Camp street, returned to-day to her home in Malden, Mass.

Misses Winona Griffith, Velma Campbell and Irene Booth left the city this morning for Burlington and are to pass a week in camp at Queen City park.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Clough and son and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Averill and little daughter, who have been passing some time at York Beach, Me., will return to the city to-morrow.

William Mercer of Ayer street, who is taking a vacation from his duties at the Barre postoffice, with Mrs. Mercer and son, has been passing 10 days with friends near Randolph.

Mrs. Irene Rossi has been passing several days in Burlington, where she visited Mrs. Rose Galli, who has been receiving treatment in a hospital. The latter's condition is considerably improved.

Garbage collections instituted by the street and health departments early in the week are practically completed, nearly every street having been covered. If any streets remained unvisited by the collectors, the work will be finished Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest N. Worthen and two children of Springfield, Mass., and Mrs. Clinton N. Field of New York City arrived in Barre by automobile last evening and are the guests of Mr. Worthen's mother, Mrs. H. O. Worthen of Keith avenue.

Fred Miles of Montpelier, who worked in a Barre livery stable 20 years ago, was in town yesterday renewing acquaintances with friends. Some days ago Mr. Miles, who was employed in repairing a roof, fell from a ladder and injured his right leg badly.

Miss Ruth Parker of Spaulding street, who is taking a vacation from her duties as librarian at the Aldrich Public library, has returned from Brattleboro, where she has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Vaughan. Before returning to work, Miss Parker will pass several days at Joe's point in West Danville.

Only a week remains for taxpayers to settle their dues at city hall. After Aug. 10 those who do not pay will be in bad standing until they pay the constable added costs of collection. Thus far collections have been comparatively slow, but the clerk and his assistants have a busy week ahead of them and by next Saturday, according to all precedents, pretty much all of the accounts will have been settled.

Miss Pitkin, district nurse, is taking a much needed rest of two weeks, beginning Aug. 1. The committee of the divic department of the Woman's club has secured the services of Mrs. Katharine McDonald. Any of the doctors or citizens knowing of any patients needing the services of the district nurse can telephone Mrs. W. F. Shepard or Mrs. W. H. Richardson. Mrs. McDonald's address is 70 Washington street. Telephone 718-11.

Friends of Miss Grace Newhall gathered at her home on Orange street last evening to tender her a surprise, which developed into a miscellaneous shower in honor of her approaching marriage to Rollin Woodworth of this city. The affair was a complete surprise to the hostess and a delightful evening was spent.

Many beautiful gifts of linen, china and cut glass were presented the bride-to-be, and a pleasing feature of the presentation was the gift of the container, a basket 100 years old presented her by a friend of the family. This basket, which measured 78 inches around the top and stood 12 inches high, was completely covered with pink and white sweet peas and ferns, making it very beautiful. Miss Newhall responded appropriately to the presentation of the gifts and after a social time refreshments of ice cream, cake and wafers were served, the plates being decorated with sweet peas. On the departure of the guests, all tendered their warmest good wishes for the future happiness of their hostess.

An interesting picture of what the war has brought to the Scottish granite industry is contained in a letter received at the office of the Barre Granite Manufacturers' association from the firm of D. & A. Davidson of Inverness. An extract of the letter follows: "In Aberdeen, which is the chief city of the granite industry, there were 2,000 heavers and polishers in the monumental branch alone. There are now 500; 1,500 have joined the army and navy from this one trade alone in Aberdeen. The largest monumental quarry in Aberdeen employed 100 men, while now it has 20, as many as 80 having joined the forces. Both materials and wages are 50 per cent above the pre-war rates. I give you the figures relating to Aberdeen as it affords the best illustration of the conditions in this trade. Personally, we are going, but no more. Material of ordinary dimensions takes so long to procure, and labor simply cannot be had, except very old men. There is not a single apprentice in the trade, and we do not expect them until these dreadful times have passed."

Mrs. George L. Thayer of 9 Clark street has a son, George Thayer, who is a member of the 101st Machine Gun battalion with the American expeditionary forces. The young man writes, among other things: "We have had some very interesting and somewhat exciting experiences during our eight months' sojourn in Europe. At this writing I am seated in a small dugout not far from the front line. We are situated in front of our own artillery and when they open up we can hear the shells whistle over our heads occasionally. They send some back but we send five over to their line. The spirit the Yanks have shown over here is simply wonderful. It certainly must have been a surprise to the Kaiser by the recklessness of the recent drives he has made. It is evident that he realizes the war must be won now or never, but American power has become a reality much sooner than the Huns thought possible, so that the scales are on the point of turning for an allied victory. The knowledge that the American people are behind us in this war has filled the whole army full of pep. The spirit that called our fathers in '76, '61 and '58 is a legacy to the sons of '18. The blood that these heroes have shed shall not have been in vain for it spurs Uncle Sam's boys to a fighting spirit which ultimately will mean the extermination of the Hohenzollern and a glorious victory for the Stars and Stripes."

This may seem early to talk Fall Dresses, but this is a different season than we ever had before. Prices are bound to be much higher later, and all reorders will have to cost us much more on these Dresses.

While in the market two weeks ago, we were able to get some extra good Dress values, in styles that are the latest and qualities that are not so much advanced over other seasons. This you can readily realize when you see the quality and know the prices we have put on them.

We have one lot of Silk Poplin Dresses that are made of the season's best quality Poplin. Some are embroidered in front, others plain tailored. These are made in the best of shape. Come in all colors and Black. The prices are only $11.00 and $12.00 each.
